EGPD officers contacted S-1 (Sacramento resident) and S-2 & S-3 (Stockton residents) while they were standing at the rear of a pickup truck that was backed into a driveway next to the Elks Lodge. When the three suspects were contacted, officers observed several yard tools in the bed of the truck and a lawn mower on the ground directly behind the truck. While searching the immediate area, officers located a storage shed that had been broken into on the grounds of the Elks Lodge. The three suspects were detained and a representative from the lodge responded to the location. The representative identified the property in the bed of the truck and the lawn mower as belonging to the facility. The suspects were arrested then transported to the main jail.
