

MANNY PROVEDITOR

Manny Provedor is a native Californian, born in San Francisco and growing up in the Bay Area. Manny has also lived in San Diego and Los Angeles and feels fortunate to have seen the many differences within the state of California. Manny, his wife of 23 years, and their two children moved to Elk Grove in 2002. His children have attended Elk Grove Unified School District – the oldest graduated in 2017 and the youngest will graduate in 2020. Manny is a Financial Advisor with an office in Elk Grove. He has been helping families and businesses grow and protect their wealth for 10 years. He has seen more and more prosperity created locally and envisions a great community into the future. Manny has seen many changes in the city of Elk Grove and wants to ensure our city remains diverse. His hope is to ensure our police force is a positive influence on the children in our city.
