Promotional and Transfer Policy

1004.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE
The purpose of this policy is to establish required and desirable qualifications for both promotion within the ranks of the Elk Grove Police Department and transfers to specialized assignments. It is the intent of the Department to balance the duration of assignments between meeting departmental needs and providing opportunities for employee job enrichment and development.

1004.1.1 DEFINITIONS
PROMOTION- Permanent assignment to a rank in which a department vacancy exists (Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain, etc.)

SPECIALIZED ASSIGNMENT- Assignments outside the basic patrol function, which typically have an established time cap. The assignment does not constitute a change in job classification.

1004.1.2 CHIEF OF POLICE DISCRETION
All assignments within the Police Department are at the discretion of the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police will adjust assignments outside of the recommended durations described in this policy only when special needs or circumstances exist, in order to abide by the goals of balance, fairness and operational efficiency.

1004.3.2 SPECIALIZED ASSIGNMENT PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENT
In order to be considered for placement in a special assignment, officers must be successfully meeting established department performance standards. While assignment durations are specified in this policy, it is understood that officers must continue to work at a satisfactory level in order to hold a special assignment for any length of time. Other, more specific, criteria for unit placement may be placed based on the needs of the unit and organization. All specialty assignments described in this policy shall have an annual review for retention during the period of June to July in order to provide sufficient notice for any potential returns to Field Services. This review may be a part of an annual performance evaluation.

1004.3.3 SPECIALIZED ASSIGNMENT SELECTION PROCESS
The testing and selection process for specialized assignments will occur on an as needed basis. There will not be a qualification list established for future use.

The following criteria apply to transfers:

(a) The IDC announcement for each specialized assignment will clearly identify the requirements of the position and the components of the testing process, including the assigned weighting of each testing component.

(b) Submission of a standardized application is required.

(c) The selection process may include review of supervisor recommendations, as well as written, oral, and/or performance testing components.

(d) Based on supervisor recommendations and those of the Bureau Commander after the interview and any required testing, the Bureau Commander will submit his/her recommendation(s) to the Division Commander.

(e) Administrative evaluation and approval by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police will employ the “rule of three” in the selection process.

The policy and procedures for all positions may be waived for temporary assignments, emergency situations or for training.

Applicants must meet all requirements outlined in the IDC announcement by the final application due date specified in the announcement.

The application and selection process for Field Training Officers is covered in Policy 436.

Assignment identified in this policy. Back-to-back full-time specialized assignments must be different specialized assignments. The Detective Unit and the Street Crimes Unit are considered to be different assignments.

1004.6 APPEALS OF A REASSIGNMENT DECISION
Routine reassignments pursuant to this policy shall not be considered as disciplinary action. Any employee who is reassigned according to this policy may appeal the decision in the following manner:

(a) A first level of appeal will be to the Division Commander of the Unit the employee is being reassigned from. Such an appeal will be made in writing within thirty (30) days of the employee receiving notification of any intent to reassign. The effected Division Commander shall respond, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of receiving the written notice.

(b) The next level of appeal will be to the Chief of Police. Within fifteen (15) days of receiving written notice from the Division Commander of the intent to transfer, the employee may appeal the decision in writing to the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police shall respond in writing to the employee within fifteen (15) days. The Chief of Police shall be the final level of appeal.

Any employee reassigned prior to the end of their minimum special assignment term can appeal using the process outlined in Article XI (Grievance Procedure) of the MOU. This applies to any reassignment that is not "routine" as described above.

1004.7 SHIFT ASSIGNMENTS
Patrol shift assignments for Sergeants, Police Officers and Community Service Officers will be made according to Elk Grove Police Officers Association Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

Shift assignments for Dispatchers and Dispatch Supervisors will be made according to the procedure outlined in the Communications Procedure Manual, Section 1.3.4: Annual Shift Selection.

1004.8 PROMOTIONAL PROCESS
It shall be the policy of the Elk Grove Police Department to maintain a fair and consistent performance based promotional process, which identifies the most qualified candidates for promotion, provides equal opportunity to all qualified candidates, and supports each employee in their professional growth.

A typical promotional process may include, but is not limited to the following:

(a) Promotional testing announcement identifying minimum qualifications and requirements
(b) Review of employee application
(c) Written examination
(d) Problem Solving/Written Assignment
Promotional and Transfer Policy

(e) Oral examination
(f) Assessment Center Exercises/Panel Interviews
(g) Staff/Supervisory Input
(h) Background investigation
(i) Review of Personnel, Training, and Internal Affairs records
(j) Chief's interview

A minimum score of 70% in each phase of the testing process is necessary in order to proceed to the next level of testing.

1004.8.1 STAFF INPUT
The Chief of Police may solicit input from Police Department staff at the rank of the promotional candidates’ immediate supervisor or higher.

1004.8.2 FINAL RANKING LIST
(a) Final ranking shall be determined by applying the assigned weights to the scores of the test elements.
(b) If at the time of appointment the final ranking list contains three or less candidates, the Chief of Police may, at his or her discretion, elect to promote from the list or terminate the list.
(c) Lists shall expire 12 months after posting. Such lists may be extended no more than two six-month periods at the discretion of the Chief of Police.

1004.8.3 CHIEF'S INTERVIEW
The Chief's interview shall be the final element in any promotional process. The Chief will interview the top three candidates on the final ranking list and will make a determination as to which candidate will be promoted.
