

DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY AND SPECIAL NEEDS EMERGENCY PACKET

FAMILY EMERGENCY PLAN

Before an emergency happens sit down together and decide how you will be in contact with each other, where you will go and what you will do in an emergency. Keep a copy of this plan in your car, at home and give a copy to all those who care for your child, such as school and adult day programs, daycare providers. Take it with you when you travel.

EMERGENCY STEPS WHEN CALLING FOR A SPECIAL NEEDS MISSING PERSONS

✓	Always call 911 immediately if your loved one is missing from your home.
✓	Clearly state the missing individual's name for the 911 dispatcher
✓	State that they have a cognitive impairment, provide the diagnosis, state they are endangered and have no sense of danger.
✓	Tell them when you noticed the individual was missing, what clothing he or she was wearing.
✓	Tell them to immediately dispatch personnel to nearby water sources (lakes, ponds, pools) if the individual is attracted to water
✓	Provide information about the individual's tracking device – company, type and number, if applicable.

EMERGENCY POINT PERSON

Create an emergency point person who can contact neighbors, fax your alert form to local law enforcement and assist in making arrangements.

Should your loved one go missing, make sure this contact person has a cell phone, knows what the individual is wearing, any identifying features, where they were last seen, how long they may have been gone, any medical needs or allergies the individual may have, the individual’s likes and dislikes and main attractions. Provide your emergency contact with a copy of this plan.

AREAS TO SEARCH

List the main places the individual may likely go within the neighborhood, as well as the most dangerous areas nearby. Search these areas first. If you have assigned searchers ahead of time, make sure they know which location is assigned to them.

Location Name	Description
Example: Jack Hill Park	Fascinated by the creek (unable to swim) and loves to swing.

IDENTIFIED SEARCHERS

Before an emergency happens, assign at least five willing searchers who will commit to searching for your child in the event of an emergency. Make sure they would be immediately available, willing and understand which search location is assigned to them.
