WESTERN STATES POLICE MOTORCYCLE TRIALS

Elk Grove, CA – On August 23, 2008, the Elk Grove Police Department Traffic Division will host the prestigious Western States Police Motorcycle Training and Skills Competition.

The Western States Police Motorcycle Training and Skills Competition will take place near the Pavilion area inside the Elk Grove Regional Park. The competition will showcase many of the areas best motorcycle officers as they maneuver through the skills course. Over 18 law enforcement agencies and 70 officers will take part in this competition.

This all day event (8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) is free to the public. Members of the community, who are licensed to operate a motorcycle and bring their motorcycle to the event, are invited to participate in a specially designed skills course for civilians. For more information regarding the event, please contact Officer Christopher Trim (916) 478-8008.
